The ARRL plan proposal is absurd. It gives FREE automatic upgrades to a group who have not aspired to seek upgrade on their own. It penalizes the General ticket holders who have learned code and worked to upgrade. Morse code must continue to be a requirement for all class holders, General and above.